

What kind of document should I choose depending on what I need?

What sort of resources should I borrow or read in the university library depending on what work I've been asked to do (either in class or a tutorial) and things I've been asked to read (general reading lists and tutorial instructions)?

! Go for the most recent edition

I need ONE-OFF INFORMATION
The definition of a word, understanding a notion?

> GLOSSARIES AND DICTIONARIES

Vocabulaire juridique, G. Cornu, PUF

I'm looking for LEGAL AND REGULATORY TEXTS

> CODES

Code civil, DALLOZ

Code civil, LEXISNEXIS

I want TO PRACTISE MY LEGAL TECHNIQUES

> METHODOLOGY

Je veux réussir mon droit, Isabelle Défrenois-Souleau, DALLOZ

Previous exam papers, easily recognisable from the name of the collection

Annales des concours (Editions Vuibert)
Annales (éditions Dalloz) >
Annadroit (Editions Gualino)
Corrigés d'examen (LGDJ)

I can always check these out!
So I don't make mistakes!

Collection Bescherelle, HATIER

I need TO PREPARE A TUTORIAL, FIND MORE INFORMATION ABOUT A COURSE
I choose the format depending on what I need

> MEMENTOS

– memorise the main themes of the course

Droit constitutionnel et institutions politiques, Jean-Paul Jacqué, DALLOZ

> HANDBOOKS

– understanding the course

Droit constitutionnel, Francis Hamon et Michel Troper, LGDJ

> ABSTRACTS AND TREATIES

– taking parts of the course further

Droit constitutionnel, Précis de droit public, Louis Favoreu, DALLOZ

– going into detail

Introduction à l'étude du droit, Christian Larroumet et Augustin Aynès, ECONOMICA

I need to consult FREE ONLINE legal resources either on or off the campus

> OFFICIAL WEBSITES AND LEGAL DATABASES

< Legifrance.fr

Dalloz.fr >

< Lexis360.fr

Lextenso.fr >

< Lamyline